BOYDTON, VA., October 18.—Special.—
Yesterday was a day of unusual excitement in political circles, it being the last ourt day and the last opportunity for he candidates to speak, and they were out in full force.

Mr. D. Q. Eggleston, Democratic candidate for the Senate from this district, attended wort. He has no opponent. He told me his object in visiting Mecklenburg was for the purpose of interview. lenburg was for the purpose of interviewing the people and by personal contact to learn their wishes in the selection of Judge to be elected by the Legislature this winter. This matter of the judge-ship is the all-absorbing question in this county. The two candidates—Judge Homes and C. J. Faulkner, Esq. —are both hard at work and have many supporters. A flutter has been produced here by the publication of a card by F. Sklowith, Esq. in the last week's issue of the Mcklenburg News, in which Mr. Skipwith attacks very vigorously the administration of the affairs of Mecklenburg county by Judge Homes. It is understood that the Judge has prepared a reply in that the Judge has prepared a reply in vindication of himself which will meet the charges against him. Much apathy exists in Mecklenburg as regards politics.

There will be a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. this morning at H o'clock of the workers of the Carnival of Nations, a bazaar to be held for the benefit of the building fund of the Virginia Home for Incurables. A large and prompt attendance is requisited.
